Panorama '67

The year in review—Life at Start High School, as seen from a central standpoint, exists as an all-encompassing atmosphere, represented by an ever-changing kaleidoscope of pictures and words.
Characterized by an unrelenting pace, it is full of vague images and vivid impressions etched on a plate of memory.

Bob
To a real nice kid in English. Good luck in the future.
Jerry Aston '67

Bobby - Baby,
Be good if at all possible!
Thanks for all the good times, hope there will be more.
SEE you in Next year's

Franz '68

The year unfolds moments, some to be remembered and cherished, others quickly forgotten, but all enmeshed with the emotions we felt here: the exuberance of success and satisfaction, the depths of depression and doubt, and most frequently, the drifting of unfeeling existence.
The year exists as 2,000 individuals, each as a separate being groping for his own personal reward, or at times,
as 2,000 fellow workers, each contributing his best for the good of the group.
A single person who reaches the pinnacle of his happiness, a single person who falls to discouraging failure, or a mass of people who merely "are."
Just as each of the 2,000 students is different from the others in character, so is his outlook on life at Start different from the view held by any other.

Bob
To a fellow Blondy, except your one more step ahead of me, (you're cute) its been so much fun getting to know you and being in some classes with you. You're a really darling guy Bob and its really been fun. I'll remember always the good times in Chem. this, and with Bill (sorry you had to wait so long for me to get ready). I hope we can do lots more stuff and be real good "buddys" Have a wonderful summer and Senior year. God Bless you always!

Realizing that one must sometimes learn by vicarious experiences, the Shield staff wishes to uncover for you the laughter and the tears, the joys and the sorrows of the year, giving a view in every direction.
The year is many things to many people.
Presenting a few of those things which made Start High in 1967—

Bob,

I've known you for quite a while & my opinion has never changed - you the greatest! Why do you think I screamed my head off at the track meet? You're a doll & you're sweet & brainy to boot! That a lot to ~~find~~ fit in a small lovable package with blue eyes but the good Lord has done it & the females of the world are happy about it!

Stay like you are & never change & don't lose that sense of humor!

Be good

Love ya,

Linda Kent

Student Life

Students are strongly tempted by the lure of competition and activity in all facets of school life.
The manifold interests take hold, flowing through the year in a blur of involvement, focussing on a few people and events, yet including all in a haze of motion . . .

Mounting frenzy of Homecoming week is released as the queen's court is announced at the assembly.
A fervor of excitement evolves as students parade to Page Stadium in anticipation of a triumphant Homecoming game.
Half-time brings tears and roses as Sally Burgin is crowned queen, and Spartans charge on to a 41—12 victory.

A queen's happy smile, goal posts, football players, the crisp October air in the open courtyard, and the thrill of victory lend flavor to the 1966 Homecoming Dance, "When Green Turns to Gold." Crowning of the queens, carefree antics, and musical notes bring to a climax the whirl of Homecoming activities.

Rehearsing lines, designing sets, collecting props, and selling tickets, Seniors and Juniors devote their time, labor, thought, and effort to produce The Diary of Anne Frank.
Their hours of work, fears and apprehensions, are all made worthwhile as the curtain rises on Sejuna, 1966.

An air of solemn reverence fills the auditorium during the presentation of December programs.
Recognizing excellence in contributions to school life, the National Honor Society inducts new members in an inspiring candelight service.
The Royal Choir ushers in the holidays with a musical account of the first Christmas, the cantata Dawn of Redeeming Grace.

The Spirit of Christmas Past envelopes visitors in an English tavern.
Evergreen boughs, an old-fashioned tree, a mural of a coach and four, and wine bottle candles create the atmosphere of Olde England.
Dressed in red velvet, Karen Hrabosky reigns as Queen of the 1966 Student Council Dance.

Miss Pam Josephson, Toledo Area Student Council Queen Attendant

Poised and charming as Start's candidate for queen, Pam Josephson graces the court of the TASC dance, An Evening in Athens, reigning as first attendant.

Viveca Ljungberg, Sweden

Inquisitive, observant, and active, Knut Götfredsen and Viveca Ljungberg, eagerly meet the demands of social and scholastic life and adjust to living a year as American teen-agers.

and the music of the New Sound Quartet transform the cafeteria into a ballroom

VICTORY

Capacity crowds brimming with spirit, a sea of cheering faces marching to DeVilbiss, cries of allegiance to our Spartan mascot, and banners covering the halls, indicate encouragement to athletic teams and loyalty to Start.

Mighty Spartan spirit is proclaimed during Spirit Week 1967.
Spartans of the Day on WTOD, decorated windows and lockers, a pep assembly poem and pom-pom routine, baby pictures and Color Day, and a permanent alma mater emphasize Spartan pride and spirit that carries on throughout the year.

GETS TOUGH, THE TOUGH GETS GOING

Senior Class

The end of the year . . . especially memorable for seniors enjoying their last high school days, with bus rides and plays in New York, speeches and yearbooks at the banquet, and the spell of the South Seas at their Senior Prom.
A tassel and diploma at commencement bring to a fitting close the picture imagery of 1967.

Educators

Education is a companion which no misfortune can depress—no crime destroy—no enemy alienate—no despotism enslave.
At home, a friend;
abroad, an introduction;
in solitude, a solace;
and in society, an ornament.
Without it, what is man?— a splendid slave, a reasoning savage.

Zetalethean Literary Society

Homecoming mums, bottle caps and cashier slips, Sue's fudge on Valentine's Day, American Theatre League ushers, Nihil Sine Labore . . .
Zetalethean Literary Society members attended classic and contemporary plays and worked together to raise funds by selling Start stationery and saving labels for Community Club Awards.
As a service project they made Thanksgiving favors for children at Toledo Hospital.

Amorosa

"Ama, ama, ama!"
victorious kite-flying contestants, Halloween favors,
Little AMA girl on a Spirit Week window, fund-raising car wash . . .
Throughout the year, Amorosa Social Service Club members gained "Friendship Through Service." Sending Valentine cookies and cards to the Old Folks Home was among their major service projects.

Forensic League

Snow in Port Clinton, tournaments every week, early buses and late arrivals, missing quote cards and file boxes, weekly magazines left home, periodical literature guides, lemons and pickle juice, good eye-contact, footwork, and gestures, firsts, seconds, and thirds, sore throats,
"Join NFL and see the world" . . .
Start's first speech team, participating in debate and individual events, brought prestige in public speaking to the school and experience to its members as they swept honors from well-established teams.
National Forensic League members won the sweepstakes trophy at Start's first annual tournament.

N.F.L.—Front Row—Mrs. B. Donovan, Adviser; D. Wexler, C. Williams, K. Harbaugh, M. Nash. Row 2—S. Wolff, K. Zaenger, S. Markowicz, N. Parks, D. Edwards, C. Fidler. Row 3—M. Ross, C. Prichard, R. D.E.C.A.

Job interviews and guest speakers, cakes and celebrations, 100 page manuals and Mr. Row's nerves, Employers' Appreciation Banquet, the D.E.C.A. dance, a smiling "sweetheart" . . .
The Distributive Education Club of America, closely associated with Start's new D.E. program, endeavored to promote activities that co-ordinate with learnings in marketing and business.
Members won first and second place honors and Rookie Club of the Year award at D.E.C.A. state contests in Columbus.

Equestrians

Billy and the chariot, chicken wire and roses, visits to Douglas Meadows, Pearson Park,
weekend horseback riding, Pee Wee's new home . . .
By riding together regularly, Equestrians improved their skills and increased friendship among members.
Finding a winter home for their adopted Welsh pony Pee Wee was a major club project.

Equestrians—Front Row—D. Wherry, Corr. Sec.; B. Raab, Treas. Row 2—B. Jankowski, Rec. Sec.; B. McCauley, E. Reuman, Pres.; Miss K. Barbe, Adviser; D. Turk, L. Weber, V. Pres. Row 3—D. Lynch, M. Jelinger, J. Douthett, C. Richardson.

Fishing Club

Deflated legs and dead fish, losing to Talisman, friendly squabbles . . .
Keeping alive traditions set by graduates, the Fishing Club of Start was re-organized this year by sophomores.
On Friday the 13th of January, thirteen basketballs bounced toward Bowsher as the members held their annual B-Ball Dribble and set the mood for a victory over the South Side rivals.

Fishing—Front Row—W. Senecal, V. Pres.; W. Clark, Pres.; W. Phifer, Sec.-Treas.; Mr. D. Simon, Adviser. Row 2—M. Mocniak, J. Bylow, P. McCloskey. Row 3—T. McKinley, J. Snuggs, J. Warren, R. Shope. Row 4—R. Taraschke, G. Faunce, C. Forst, R. Clabaugh.

F.B.L.A. officers display their prize-winning scrapbook

Awards and honors, honors, honors, Halloween party, spring roast and banquet, outstanding speakers, math, typing, and spelling tests . . .
The Future Business Leaders of America ventured to Columbus to capture first place honors in attendance, mileage, scrapbook, and spelling, with seconds in parliamentary procedure and exhibit.
And for the second year in succession, Outstanding Chapter in the State.

Future Nurses

Pros and cons of a nursing career, the charity project, Paramedical programs, inductions . . .
Future Nurses of America learned more about nursing and its opportunities by having guest speakers from area hospitals, and assisting in the school nurse's office.
Members of Start's chapter of F.N.A. were active in Toledo Paramedical program.

Future Homemakers

Bonnie Bell make-up and modeling techniques, homemade bread, candy-filled Christmas stockings, touring General Mills, attaining national affiliation, spoons with red ribbons . . .
Start's Future Homemakers of America Club sought to better the home experience and broaden knowledge of the homemaker's role.
F.H.A. members held a Valentine auction to raise money for the Heart Fund.

Future Teachers

A bake sale and a car for Homecoming, acting as hostesses and ushers . . .
Experience in the profession of education was gained by members of the Future Teachers of America Club as they substituted for absent teachers until replacements could be contacted.
After traveling to Columbus for a statewide convention in the fall, the girls held a Christmas party and made slippers for the children at Friendly Center.

Bowling

Spartan keglers under Coach Tom Hickman made a fine showing in this year of inter-scholastic competition.
The National League team, led by MVP pin ace Gordy Wilson, captured Start's first city bowling crown.
Other standout members of the team included Doug Spencer, Robert DuBell, Robert McKenty, and Howard Stanbery.
Start's American League team, led by Bill Holtfreter and Denny Hyter, gained experience to capture future honors.

Basketball

Determination and team spirit were key words as Start's roundballers powered their way to third place finish in the City League.
The Spartan offensive effort was dominated by All-City scoring ace Al Peake, who led the league with a 26.5 average per game.
Under Coach Jerry Bushong the team overcame strong defenses to finish with an overall 13—7 record, with outstanding performances from seniors Jack Driftmyer, Derek Duckworth, Roger Cottrell, and Jim Gracyk, juniors Denny Brighton and Dave Dugai, and sophomore standout Jerry Altgilbers.

Students

Class of 1970

Each freshman experiences an enormous sense of loss one day in late August, as he enters the auditorium for the first class meeting.
Still clinging stubbornly and loyally to his grade school clique of comrades, he views a vast sea of jabbering and unfamiliar faces, and wonders what it will be like to spend the next four years with five hundred strangers.
He is quick to learn that being a freshman is a little frightening, but that it also can be a lot of fun.
Best of all, it's new,
it's exciting,
it's beginning . . .

Class of 1969

Sophomores greet their second year at Start with new awareness.
Building on the mistakes and successes they made in one year as freshmen, they face the next months supported by the firm foundations of their experiences.
Still full of irrepressible enthusiasm, they can tackle the problems that will confront them with the guidance of the standards set by former classes.
Entrusting the responsibilities of running the class to a chosen few, they elect the officers who will serve as their leaders and will draft the plans for active sophomore participation in school life.

Yet, regardless of logic they've gained, they play a typically sophomoric role, each taking the part of "the wise fool," self-assured and opinionated, but immature and unrealistic in his thinking, developing the foresight and wisdom necessary for the upperclass years.

Class of 1968

Juniors are an active part of the constantly moving scene, the panoramic view of Start High School.
Eager to fill their places as upperclassmen, juniors can be found in every phase of school life.
Rarely hesitant to accept responsibility, they take their cue from the example set by the seniors and former classes; but their plans are formed with the determination to make this year individual, unique,
and definitely their own.
Idealistic in their goals, they feel that with effort and self-confidence nothing is unattainable.

The leaders of 1968, juniors of today, elect officers and plan enthusiastically for the coming year when they will inherit the leadership of Start.

Seniors

Secretary—Barb McDermott

Treasurer—Cherie Hankins

President—Jim Haggerty

Vice-President—Mary Ann Carson

A senior year is the end of one phase, one part of a life, both important
and insignificant, remembered with sad fondness although often overlooked in the excitement of what is yet to come.
Seniors approach their final year with mixed emotions.
For some, the last months are just a period of waiting, a sort of temporary detainment before they can capture the frolic and freedom of college life, or face the reality of confronting the world and earning a living.
But for most, the senior year is a last chance to fulfill all their aspirations, momentous or immaterial, before the high school days have slipped by.

They are proud, even arrogant!
Always ready to express themselves loudly, asserting superiority in every instance, they condemn that which they dislike, making vocal complaints against the drudgery,
the phonies, and the constant push . . .

A year as a senior includes fond thoughts of job interviews, gossip and the latest news, college applications,
wild speculations,
term papers,
sly capers.

H opes and dreams,
impossible schemes,
dramatic screams,
winning teams!
Dances,
romances,
endless meetings,
friendly greetings,
frantic crams,
final exams,
comics and clowns,
caps and gowns.

But more than just a recollection of experiences like the trip to New York . . .

the senior year will always mean a way of life, and perhaps a state of mind.

Providing a study in contrasts, the year is a chance to reflect on all the things one wanted to do, and the things actually accomplished all the people one wished to know, and those who became close friends.
It is a strengthening of friendships with the sad expectation that graduation will break many of the bonds.

With spring comes the realization that the beginning has ended.
The four years that seemingly dragged so slowly have gone by all too quickly.

Life at Start is at times drab, frustrating,
and seemingly unbearable.
It is a lesson in humility, a tearing down of naive conceptions, a constant wave of personal change.

But in the end, all its shortcomings are made worthwhile, somehow,
by a remarkable teacher, a cherished friend, or one of many unforgettable moments.
The decisions made,
the problems solved, and the growing-up process experienced by each student here have made the days, in many respects, rather wonderful.

It has been a year of contrast, balanced in the harmony of special moments and normal days.
Behind all the questions and answers has lain a search for values more noble than tangible objects, more lasting than tests, textbooks, and grades.
The year, in its completeness, has brought something to each person; its rewards are here for today and tomorrow, dependent on the individual, his companions, his contributions.
It has been a year through which nothing has remained unchanged; a year full of momentum, and memory.
A year to add to the panorama of life.

Bob,
I guess we're not the best stage crew. We try though Spot-light tag is cool also. Yea.
We're really learning quite a bit. Guess that's part of the fun. Our class is seeing Let's Kup it this way.
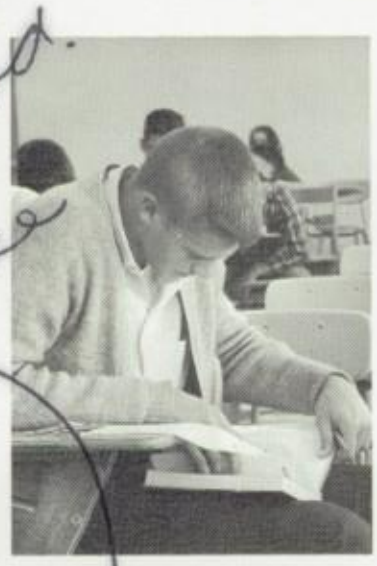
Be good.
Love
Karen



Bob-
To a great guy - I've had a lot of fun with you really are a great person and I can't tell you how much I appreciate your friendship. Good luck next year and always. Don't be discouraged because of things you're wanted & haven't gotten. Just trying and things will come to you more easily. Please don't give up. May God bless you forever.
Love always,
Laura

Bob;
To a great guy that made English complete.
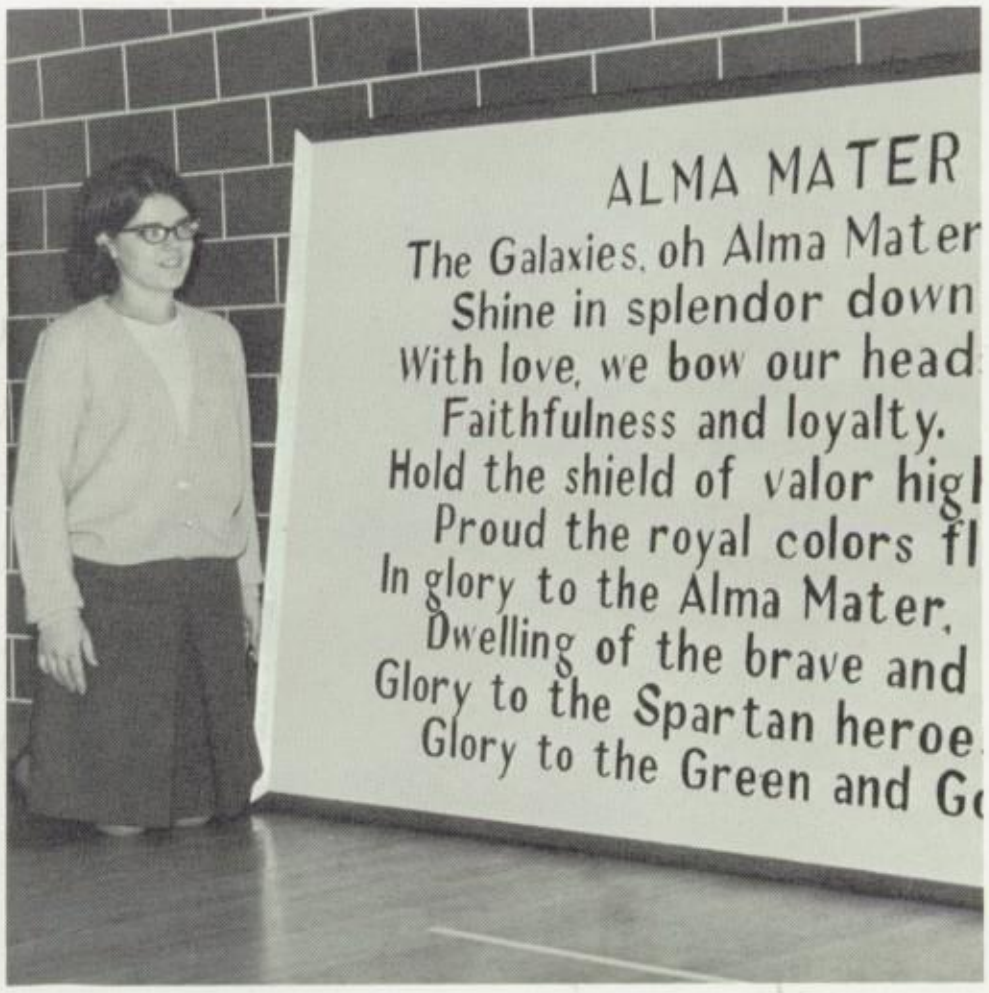
Good Luck;
Kurt Eckhardt



ALMA MATER

Our Thanks to . . .

Mr. Richard St. John, our friend and ever-challenged adviser; The assistance of Jack Putnam and the H. A. Powell Studios; Bob Abraham for his photographic skill and never-ending patience; The journalistic knowledge of Al Jones and the American Yearbook Company; Bob Blanton and Marlen "Gus" Hoverson for their experienced counseling; The creative talents of Miss Betty Conlin and her pupils; And especially to the administration, faculty, and student body for their spirit, cooperation, and support.

The Shield Staff Thanks You.

Bob,
a real nice
guy in English.
Have had a lot of fun with you in English Have fun with all the girls and don't make them cry.

Nancy
Benbenek

The members of the 1967 SHIELD staff learned much more than journalism principles. We discovered the weight of responsibility, the pressures of hard work, the respect we owe to authority, and how to harmonize with other people under a number of varying conditions. During the past year we have gathered many lasting memories. Among these are Stash's star of excellence, Loren's imitations, the daily blackboard flower, "Staff Romances," a party for the queen, "Newman" and "Farmer," the mid-day snowball fight, our cookie addict, Jonce's dilemma, the order of departure, "Black Roots," and the long awaited arrival of "The Spoiler." These and other treasured recollections have molded for us an unforgettable family of friends. I sincerely hope that our efforts, steadfastly guided by Mr. St's watchful and discerning eye, have helped create a yearbook which will faithfully review the most memorable events of this Spartan year.

To Bob
kid in English who has hardly been there. Its been nice knowing you & hope to know ya better. Good luck in everything ya do.

Love ya

Cindy

Bob
You a real stud guy who doesn't know very well. You really a nice guy and I hope we can be friends. Have fun and be good.
Love ya,
Kathy Storm

Bob,
even though I know didn't really get to know you till late in the year, I want you to know that I think a lot of you. You're really a cool guy & a real "stud" summer! Don't forget that we're going drinking at 2:00 AM. the 21st! OK! Be good & I hope all your wishes and dreams come true as you deserve it!
Love ya,
Mary
Ann

Bob,
It has really been a good learning experience (even though I've had my ups & downs) working with you this summer.
Keep up the good work.
Sincerely,
Kathy Storm

Bob
A truly decent 440 man (51.5 is not impossible) good luck forever (@ CC) you deserve it!
Love ya,
Terry "Bird" Godek
See me on 103
& beat him

Dear Bob,

It's been a lot of fun this year. I'll miss you. You'll have to come over this summer, and always. The light booth, the "spook" house, after Shennanigans; I'll never forget. Good Luck, Bob, and always have fun. Stay sweet and remember when you're 31 and I'm 32. See you then. Phyllis Ransdell

To a great guy who I have enjoyed knowing this year. Hope to see you this summer more. Good luck in everything Dan Clinton

Bob,
To a real neat guy. History class has been a riot. Stay as neat as you are. See ya next year. Good Luck in all you do.
Mary Kay

FOOD,
Well dear its been great fun this year in Am. History. We had some really serious, deep discussions and you've helped me solve many problems with guys. You're really a darling boy. Have fun this year and summer!
Sue Albright

Bob,
To one of the neatest "winos" I love ever know. I hope that we can get together during the summer and play baseball, football, and drink et

Bob,
To a great guy who had the same gals as me in Student Council elections. Its been nice knowing you in Chemistry + especially working on "Anne Frank".
Tom Wright

Bob,
Its been fun in Emotion, cheatin' class + don't worry it. Have fun this summer + Good luck always!

Robert.
You are a light in the sky, such in the morning, breath to the lung, you all-so inmate a nice guy pretty well don't do any lab work without your partner....
